Declaration of Authenticity for Papers Submitted at the UZH English Department

I declare that the paper with the title

that I am submitting for the course

....

has been composed by myself and is based on my own research, except where otherwise noted.

Specifically, I hereby declare that:

- I have read and understood the UZH English Department's "Guidelines on ChatGPT and AI" and on "What Constitutes Plagiarism?" (both available at www.es.uzh.ch/downloads);

- this work has not been and will not be submitted for any other degree and/or the obtaining of ECTS points at UZH or any other institution;

- all sentences or passages taken from other people's work, whether verbatim or paraphrased, have been specifically acknowledged, with full bibliographical references (incl. for illustrations, tables and diagrams taken or adapted from other sources);

- I carried out my research independently and without the use of unauthorized aids. I am aware that I bear full responsibility for the selection, adoption, and inclusion of any AI-generated outputs. Any use of generative AI has been fully disclosed (incl. the product names of the AI tools used).

I acknowledge that submitting work which violates the principles set out in this declaration of authenticity may have legal and disciplinary consequences.
